

In December 2000 , in a lonely village in the north , I heard a cry in the night ... I woke up . I went to the window and I saw the shape of a human being who was going into the woods with his little dog . Then , I could hear a grunt and finally I saw the dog running out of the woods ... but he was alone !! the person had disappeared ! Since I am a very curious person , I went to see what it was . There was blood all over the ground And I heard a strange noise again ... I turned around and saw Two big red eyes It was a monster !!! I started running away very fast but the monster was following me, ... I managed to get back home , I closed the door , I ran upstairs quickly and got into my bed . I hid myself under my blanket . I fell asleep . Thank god , I was safe !

The day after , I told my mother that I had had a terrible nightmare ... she laughed ... because the film she had seen the night before was my nightmare !!!
